This is a wonderful book with plenty of examples that still hold true today. It is very apparent that the author, Father Delaporte, is a very intelligent person. His strong knowledge of the Catholic faith can be very confusing at times. I found myself constantly going back to my bachelor's Theology's books. It just may be that I am a little on the slow side. Never-the-less, this is a great book and should be read by all with a strong faith. The latter being the most important.

Here we are again..... In one year i have read over 50 books on the evil one..... You to should read about this one, that will gladly and with a smile take your soul to the pit....He is real and he does exist. Believe me, once you know that he is the NUMBER ONE ENEMY OF GOD...you will truly know that you can beat this B*stard at his own game. We are in the end times. Trust in the lord..The Universe vibrates his name.....You can do it....Stay strong and trust in the name of the lord.....

This book had me battling "sparky" for about 6 months after I read it. It is a good book to read to learn about satan. Remember, his biggest trick of the last century is getting people to believe that he does not exist.
